

I support this petition. The morse code requirement is largely responsible for holding back the growth of amateur radio. It is an obsolete mode of communications and should be abandoned.